SECTION 4 MONITORING AND EVALUATION

1. The Parties intend to establish a Joint Steering Committee (JSC) to elaborate the details of cooperation further and oversee this MOU's implementation. The JSC is intended to be used for outlining the development of strategic plans for collaboration, recommending areas and topics for joint activities, developing collaborative research project solicitations, facilitating the expedited review and clearance of collaborative proposals, fostering other joint activities to advance research on female reproductive disorders human diseases, monitoring of specific programs or projects, defining the financial, operational and administrative terms of cooperation and arranging any required supplementary agreements.
2. The Parties shall identify the members of the JSC, and a co-chair may be chosen by each side. The Parties shall decide on the number of members, which shall be no less than four (two selected by each Party). The JSC may meet regularly via videoconference, teleconference, web-assisted conference, or face-to-face meetings when both Parties agree. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Parties intend the JSC to meet at least once a year, or at any time agreed upon by the Parties, to review the implementation of the MOU. In certain circumstances, if a meeting cannot be held, the Parties intend that JSC members shall exchange documents in lieu of such a meeting. The composition of the JSC and venue for its meeting may be mutually decided upon by the Parties.

SECTION 5 COMPLIANCE

1. The Parties recognize that the ethical and proper conduct and administration of joint research programs, projects and activities must be compliant with all pertinent rules, regulations, policies, procedures and laws of the Government of India, state government and other funding sources. These policies include, without limitation, institutional, as well as national and international policies and standards that apply to effort certification, cost accounting standards, regulations and laws on the protection of human and animal subjects as well as the transfer of biological material in any research, conflict of interest in research, institutional and individual relationships with vendors, academic misconduct, and nepotism.
2. The Parties agree that, in fulfilling their respective obligations and duties under this MOU, they shall not discriminate against any individual or group based on race, religion, age, sex, national origin, citizenship, disability, sexual orientation, genetic information, or veterans/national guard/military reserve status.
3. The Parties represent, warrant, and agree that they have not, and will not, take any action related to or arising out of this MOU, which action in any way violates, aids or abets any violation of the anti-corruption laws of any country. Specifically, and not in limitation of the foregoing, the Parties represent, warrant, and agree that they have not, and will not, in connection with this Agreement, request or make an offer, payment, gift, promise of payment or gift, or any authorization of an offer, payment or giving of money or anything of value to any government official, political Party or official thereof, or to any candidate for political office, or to any other person while knowing or having reason to know that all or a portion of such money or thing of value will be offered, given, or promised, directly or indirectly, to any government official, political Party or official thereof, or candidate for political office, for the purpose of influencing any act or decision of such entity or person or inducing such entity or person to do or omit to do any act in order to obtain or retain business or otherwise secure any improper advantage.

SECTION 6 SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

The Parties intend to resolve any disputes or differences arising under this MOU amicably through mutual consultations and negotiations. Where a conflict in policies or law exists, the Joint Steering Committee (JSC) will employ experts from UHS and CUH to resolve the conflict.

SECTION 7 APPLICABLE LAWS

The Parties intend to perform all activities conducted pursuant to this MOU in accordance with the respective laws and regulations of India.

SECTION 8

TERM and TERMINATION

1. The MOU shall have a term of five (05) years from the date of execution. It is understood that this MOU may be subject from time to time to revision or modification by mutual agreement. Furthermore, any Party may terminate the MOU unilaterally with sixty (60) days prior written notice to the other Party[ies] in whole or in part as deemed prudent by any Party in its sole discretion. If the MOU is terminated neither Party shall be liable to the other for any monetary or other losses that may result.
2. This MOU is not intended to be a legally binding document. Rather, it is meant to describe the nature and cooperative intentions of the institutions involved and to suggest guidelines for cooperation. Nothing, therefore, shall diminish the full autonomy of either institution, nor may any constraints be imposed by either upon the other.

SECTION 9 CONFIDENTIALITY

1. "Confidential Information" means all non-public Information that is marked as "confidential" or is otherwise designated by one Party to the other Party as confidential and which is disclosed by one Party ("Disclosing Party") to the other Party ("Recipient Party"), including but not limited to personally-identifiable Information. The Recipient Party agrees to employ reasonable efforts to maintain the confidentiality of the Confidential Information, such efforts to be no less than the degree of care employed by the Recipient Party to preserve and safeguard its own confidential Information, provided that the Recipient Party shall use at least reasonable care. The Confidential Information shall not be disclosed or revealed to anyone except to employees' students and affiliates of the Recipient Party who have a need to know the Confidential Information and who have been informed of the confidential nature of the information.
2. Recipient Party shall use the same level of care in protecting and securing Confidential Information as it uses for its own Information of like kind and quality, but in no case shall the Recipient Party use less than a reasonable standard of care in protecting and securing Confidential Information. The Recipient Party acknowledges and agrees that said reasonable standard of care shall include, at a minimum, (a) restrictions on physical access to hard copies of Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party and to computers, storage media, or other devices that contain Confidential Information; and (b) industry standard technological safeguards to authenticate users and prevent unauthorized access and other intrusions. Additional security requirements may apply if Recipient Party is receiving any patient or student information.

3. For purposes of the MOU, Confidential Information shall not include information that (i) is or becomes publicly and generally known through no fault of Recipient Party; or (ii) can be established by Recipient Party to have been known to Recipient Party at the time of receipt; or (iii) is received by Recipient Party from a third party who is not bound by any obligation of non-disclosure. Recipient Party may disclose Confidential Information to the extent required by a court order or other legally obligatory request or demand, provided, however, that: (A) Recipient Party shall promptly notify the Disclosing Party of any such order, request, or demand; (B) Recipient Party shall refrain from disclosing any Confidential Information during the pendency of any motion or other legal request by disclosing Party to prevent or narrow the scope of any order, request, or demand; (C) Disclosing Party shall disclose only as much Confidential Information as is legally required; and (D) Disclosing Party shall designate any Confidential Information disclosed as "confidential" pursuant to any applicable protective order or other equivalent mechanism for restricting disclosure of Information.
4. Upon request from the Disclosing Party, the Recipient Party shall, at the Disclosing Party's election, either return to the Disclosing Party or permanently and securely destroy all Confidential Information in Recipient Party's possession or control, including all print, electronically-stored, or other copies thereof.

MISCELLANEOUS

1. The MOU shall be referenced in any program agreement executed between the Parties. Further agreements concerning any program shall provide details concerning the specific commitments made by each Party.
2. This MOU may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same agreement. The MOU is the sole agreement between the Parties concerning the subject matter hereof and shall not be altered or amended except in writing duly executed by all Parties. Should any part or provision of this MOU, for any reason, be declared invalid or illegal, such invalidity or illegality shall not affect the validity of any remaining portion, which remaining portion shall remain in force and effect as if this MOU had been executed with the invalid or illegal portions thereof eliminated.
3. The Parties shall pursue the objectives of this MOU on the basis of non-exclusivity. Neither the Parties, nor their affiliates, employees or agents shall be restricted from making any arrangement or agreement with any third party relating to immunology research.
4. Neither Party may issue a press release or otherwise disclose the existence or terms of this MOU without the prior written consent of the other Party; provided, however, that once the existence or any terms or conditions of this MOU has been publicly disclosed in a manner mutually and reasonable agreed-to by the Parties, either Party may republish the facts previously disclosed without the prior consent of the other Party.
