

First Call for Participation: 4th University Research Conclave

Pandit Bhagwat Dayal Sharma University of Health Sciences (UHS), Rohtak is thrilled to announce the 4th University Research Conclave. This premier academic event will bring together bright minds from across our constituent and affiliated colleges, as well as DGHS-run DNB institutions, to foster a spirit of scientific inquiry and innovation in healthcare.

Event Details

Date: Friday, April 17, 2026

Venue: Sushruta Auditorium, UHS, Rohtak

Program Highlights

Expert Lectures: Gain insights from four distinguished guest speakers who will be delivering keynote addresses on contemporary research topics.

Scientific Presentations: Showcase your research through Oral Presentations and Poster Presentations. Dedicated jury panels will evaluate submissions across multiple disciplines.

Academic Credit: We are coordinating with the Haryana Medical Council, Panchkula, to grant official credit hours for this scientific event.

Call for Abstracts

We invite undergraduate students, postgraduate students, DNB residents and young faculty (up to 40 years of age) to submit their research abstracts. This is an excellent platform to present your findings, receive valuable feedback from senior faculty, and engage in interdisciplinary discussions. (Specific abstract submission guidelines and deadlines will be shared in the forthcoming official circular).
