Sub: ERMED India electronic journal consortium started by NML – reg.

Dear Sir,

It is my pleasure to inform you that NML has included your institute/college in the National Level ERMED-India electronic journal consortium to provide free electronic journals to 56 Government Medical Colleges / Institutions in 1st phase across the nation.

The purchase for electronic journals is in process. You are requested to forward IP address of your Institute. Please inform, if your Institute does not have any IP address, so that Customer ID may be provided to your College/Institute till the static IP is configured.

NML desires to start access of electronic journals to its Members through www.nmlermed.in without any further delay. You will be provided list of journals and other facilities which you may avail through ERMED India e-journal consortium very soon.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

Anjana Chattopadhyay
